

PATHE NEWS SCOOPS

First pictures of the Wall Street Explosion.
 First pictures of the Olympic Games.
 First and exclusive pictures of Villa's surrender.
 First pictures of Soviet-Pole front.
 First pictures of the Rome-Tokyo flight.
 First pictures of the Mexican Revolution.
 Exclusive pictures of the Supreme Conference of the Allies at San Remo.
 Exclusive pictures of the entry of the French into Frankfort.
 Exclusive pictures of the activities of the German Reds in the Ruhr District.
 Exclusive pictures of the German Revolution.
 The Pathe News was the first to obtain pictures in Germany after the Armistice.
 The Pathe News was the first to show pictures of the German Revolution, and events in Germany leading to the formation of the republic. Then all the other weeklies followed into Germany.
 The Pathe News showed the first pictures of the capture of Fiume by D'Annunzio, beating

P—stands for Pritchard who makes them to order.
 A—is for Aultman, our nerve on the Border;
 T—is for Tommy, jes' one of our best.
 H—is for Hutt, our Boy of the West.
 E—is for Eddie who knows the rest.
 N—is for Nettie who always cuts up.
 E—is for Emmanuel who hustles them up.
 W—is for Wetzel who's up in the air.
 S—is for Sozio who represents us everywhere.
 J.B. & A.W.

A BRAVE EFFORT.

For his prize picture, Aultman decided to have the clouds do a few stunts!
 We examined the negative. My, but the clouds were unobliging! They insisted on doing straight flying—they wouldn't perform a single loop, tail spin, or spiral. There wasn't even a cloudlet daring enough to do a simple parachute leap.
 Perhaps the clouds have some sort of a grudge against poor Aultman; he might have knocked a few of them unconscious during an airplane flight.
 Why not invite some of the other heavenly inhabitants to do a little spectacular stuff, Aultman? Perhaps the Stars, or the Sun, or Haley's Comet will oblige!

