

—E. F. Cadwallader, of the Miami nurseries of Louisburg, Kansas, was in the valley last week looking into its possibilities as a fruit and grape country. He became satisfied that it has no superior and before returning east bought about 240 acres in the neighborhood of Isleta for vineyard and orchard purposes. The company will at once proceed to put in a ten-acre experimental fruit farm. Mr. Cadwallader has gone east to make the necessary arrangements. The land was purchased from M. Loewenstein and others and averaged from $25 to $40 an acre.

Miss Georgie Monk Becomes Bride Of Jon Cadwallader In Quiet Rite

Mr. and Mrs. Jon Cadwallader, who were married in a quiet ceremony Saturday night in St. Paul's Methodist Church of Las Cruces, N. M., are on a short honeymoon trip to Grand Canyon.

The bride is the former Miss Georgie Elizabeth Monk, daughter of Mrs. Frank Marshall and granddaughter of Dr. H. L. Allison of El Paso. The bridegroom is the son of Edgar E. Cadwallader and the late Mrs. Cadwallader of Mountain Park, N. M. His mother was a daughter of the late Judge Allen Blacker, prominent pioneer El Paso attorney.

Mrs. F. M. Pratt To Install Ysleta Junior Club Slate

The bride, born and reared in El Paso, was graduated from Ysleta High School and attended Texas Western College. She has been employed for the past six years in the County Clerk's office. She has one brother, Dr. Norman Monk of Morton, Texas.

Jim Cadwallader was his brother's best man and Miss Ruth Olsen of Alamogordo attended the bride.

The bridegroom has another brother, Allen, of Washington, D. C., and his sister is Mrs. Ward Curtis of Santa Fe, N. M.

Upon returning, Mr. Cadwallader and his bride will make their home in Mountain Park.

Radford Mothers Plan Tea

Members of Radford Mothers Association will hold a tea Friday in the home of Mrs. H. D. Fulwiler, 4501 Hastings St., to honor parents of out-of-town students in El Paso for graduation ceremonies.

As outgoing president of the association, Mrs. Fulwiler will preside over the tea which will be held from 3:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Most of the parents of out-of-town senior students will be in El Paso for the function as well as parents of other Upper School students.

Decorations for the tea will revolve around a maypole theme carrying out the traditional May Fete which is held at Radford each year.

A miniature maypole will furnish the center piece for the setting with individual streamers connected to miniature story book dolls.

Cut spring flowers also will be used in the decorations.

Piano Pupils

Bluebells spurs decorated for the installment.

Mrs. J. Bell in a ceremony wore a pretty Bell wore a white carnation. Special guests two Eighth District and Mrs. Charming.

retto Academy Eda and Mildred.

Mrs. George Dean from 3 hostess, 405 F.

Mrs. Rena Drive, have 1 nians' daughter emy and the.

Assisting Smith, Mrs. J. Hicks and M.

Bern Plan

June 4-1 fiance, Roy spoken at 7: Rev. H. L. M Miss Ba bridesmaids

Emil Post Says

ANSWERING The following not unfamiliar may I factually ask me when married? I'm in have never slightest reason any intention getting married, but ever one seems concerned. It most, simply and sometimes very embarrassing would annoy

MRS. PRATT

Mrs. F. M. Pratt will be installing officer for the Ysleta Junior Woman's Club at the annual luncheon at 12:30 p. m. Saturday in King's Way.

Mrs. Robert White will take office as club president; Mrs. J. T. Stovall, vice president; Mrs. John Stinson, recording secretary; Mrs. David Cramer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Herbert N. Sherwood Jr., treasurer.

Members of the board of direc-

member of the Ysleta Junior Club Mrs. Pratt is a charter and life

—E. F. Cadwallader, of the Miami nurseries of Louisburg, Kansas, was in the valley last week looking into its possibilities as a fruit and grape country. He became satisfied that it has no superior and before returning east bought about 240 acres in the neighborhood of Isleta for vineyard and orchard purposes. The company will at once proceed to put in a ten-acre experimental fruit farm. Mr. Cadwallader has gone east to make the necessary arrangements. The land was purchased from M. Loewenstein and others and averaged from $25 to $40 an acre.