

BALDWIN

Mrs. Cora Lillian Holman Baldwin, wife of the late Henry Fay Baldwin, passed away Friday. She was born in Rochester, New York, attended the University of Colorado, and came to El Paso as a bride in June, 1911. She was one of First Women Elders of the First Presbyterian Church, was a member of The Mayflower Descendants, was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was a member of the American Association of University Women for over 50 years, was a National Flower Show Judge and Teacher, was a Past Member of the Austin Terrace Garden Club, and was a past Commissioner of the El Paso Ft. Bliss Girl Scout Memorial Contributions. Please send to the First Presbyterian Church Memorial Fund or to the Y. W. C. A. Survivors' Daughters, Mrs. Eloise (Joshua E.) Nagley, Mrs. Lillian (J. W.) Woodlin, both of El Paso; Son, Henry Fay Baldwin, Jr., Odessa, Texas. Funeral Services will be held Tuesday at 2:30 P. M. in the First Presbyterian Church, Dr. Frank F. Jones and Rev. Rodger Spencer officiating. Pallbearers: Arthur Buller, Allan Mills, Jack Ruschmeyer, Cliff Schmiel, John A. Ferguson, David Rainey. Honorary Pallbearers: Maurice Taylor, Joseph Roth, Justin C. White, Ray Lorenz, Walter Scott, Robert T. Hoover, Paul Dyal, Carl Hertzog, William J. Hooten, Carl Oisen, Mart Pederson, Dr. John Wilbanks, and Homer Hirsch. Interment will be in the Evergreen Cemetery. Arrangements by Harding-Orr & McDaniel, Montana Avenue, 320 Montana Avenue, El Paso, 533 1646.