

FRANK BANNELL DIES SATURDAY

Prominent Business Man
Succumbs After Long Illness.

FRANK MELVILLE BANNELL, 64, died at his home, at 910 North Stanton street, early Saturday morning, after an illness lasting over a year.

Mr. Bannell was born in Haverstraw, N. Y., and reared in North Haven, Conn.

Frank M. Bannell

He attended grammar school and high school in New Haven and later attended school in Mt. Hermon, Mass. He moved to El Paso 15 years ago.

He had a high place in El Paso business circles, being president and general manager of the El Paso Overland company and vice president of the Atlas Brick company.

Mr. Bannell was a prominent Mason, and took an active part in city affairs. He is survived by his father, three brothers and three sisters in North Haven; by his widow, Mrs. Effie Elizabeth Bannell; his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Worsham, and two grandchildren, Joe Bannell and James Pattison Worsham, all of El Paso.

Funeral services will be held at Peak-Hagedorn chapel Monday at 2:30 p. m., with Scottish Rite and Blue lodge Masons officiating.