

MRS. JULIA S. BEHR TAKEN BY DEATH

Lived At San Elizario When It
Was County Seat

Mrs. Julia S. Behr, member of a pioneer El Paso family, died today at a local hospital of pneumonia. She was 65.

Mrs. Behr was born in 1873 at San Elizario when it was the county seat of El Paso County. Her late father, Edmund Stein, was county clerk. Mrs. Behr was prominently identified in civic and social circles in El Paso.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Rosalie Behr Walz; a brother, Max Stein, both of El Paso; a sister, Mrs. Frederick Libby; and a brother, Eugene Stein, both of Los Angeles.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Hartford Mortuary.
