SCHOOL JANITRESS TAKEN BY DEATH

Emma Conley Boland Was Maid In E. P. Schools 25 Years

Emma Conley Boland, 60, negro maid in El Paso public schools for 25 years, was dead today after a long illness.

Popular with pupils and school officials, Emma had carried on the traditions of her first husband, Andrew Conley, dean of El Paso school janitors, who died about 10 years ago.

"She was popular, loyal, and possessed the dignity of the old south," said Supt. A. H. Hughey.

Emma had worked at El Paso High school and Bailey, but worked most of the time at Morehead school.
