

J. J. BOONE, PIONEER OF SOUTHWEST, DIES

Retired Stockman and Native
Texan Succumbs After Lingering Illness.

J. J. Boone, 62 years old, a pioneer of El Paso and the southwest, died at his home, 2229 Myrtle avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock from Bright's disease. He had been ill for some time.

Mr. Boone was born near San Antonio, Texas. He came to El Paso eleven years ago and had been engaged in the stock business. He owned a ranch in New Mexico. He had been retired from active business for several months. A brother was responsible in bringing about the beautifying of Washington park.

Mr. Boone is survived by a widow, Mrs. Hattie E. Boone, three sons and six daughters. The sons are John, a deputy sheriff of El Paso county; Joe, a city fireman stationed with company No. 7, and Tom, an employe of the government. The daughters are Mrs. T. B. Allen, Mrs. F. L. Pittman and Misses Hattie, Thelma, Alice and Lucy Boone. He is also survived by two brothers and two sisters. One sister is in Texas. The two brothers and a sister are in New Mexico.

The funeral of Mr. Boone will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the chapel of the J. J. Kaster Undertaking company.