

MRS. GEO. BOVEE DIES; AGED 28

Well Known El Paso Woman, Former Austin Girl, Passes Away.

Mrs. George S. Bovee, aged 28, wife of George Bovee, paymaster of the Sierra Madre division of the Mexico North Western railroad, died at her home, 508 North Stanton street, at an early hour this morning, after an illness lasting about two months. She had lived in El Paso about eight years, and came here with her husband from Austin. Besides hundreds of sorrowing friends, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, her husband, George Bovee, and her little 10yearold son, Geo. S. Bovee, jr. Her body will probably be taken to Austin tomorrow, where it will receive burial.
