

Joseph Brick, E. P. Pioneer, Dies On Coast

Joseph J. Brick, a resident of El Paso from 1881 to 1911, died Tuesday night in San Francisco, according to word received here Thursday.

Mr. Brick was a member of a pioneer El Paso family. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, he came here as a boy with his family and later attended the old Central High School.

Funeral services will be held Friday in San Francisco, where Mr. Brick had made his home since leaving El Paso.

He survived by his widow, Alice; a brother, Ed Brick, Waco; and five sisters, Mrs. Brisbane Brown, Riverside, Calif., and Mrs. N. B. Neely, Mrs. W. J. Rand, Miss Madge Brick and Miss Bernice Brick, all of El Paso.