

DEATHS AND BURIALS

Mrs. C. E. Brinck.

Mrs. Catherine E. Brinck, formerly of Jefferson, Texas, but for many years a resident of El Paso, and the widow of J. P. Brinck, died at an advanced age at her home, 107 South Santa Fe street, this morning at 3 o'clock. She left surviving her two sons and four daughters—Mrs. J. P. Hague, of El Paso; Mrs. F. H. Goodjohn, of Pittsburg, Texas; Mrs. Foster Nichols, of Yonkers, N. Y.; Mrs. W. M. Caldwell, of El Paso; P. F. Brinck, of Beaumont, and John T. Brinck, of El Paso. The remains will be taken back to Jefferson, Texas, and buried in the family plot. McBean, Simmons & Carr have charge of the funeral arrangements.
