George Buchanan Dies In Ysleta

George Buchanan, 70, a native of Ysleta and former county commissioner, died in his Lower Valley home Saturday after an illness of two months.

Mr. Buchanan operated a mercantile store in Ysleta for more than 40 years and was active in the development of the Lower Valley.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. George Buchanan, five daughters: Mrs. Aileen Miller, Miss Ida Buchanan, Mrs. Julia Koon, Mrs. Lucille Coston, and Mrs. Eleanor Galvin, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be in the Ysleta Catholic Mission at 9 a. m. Monday with the Rev. Father Habig officiating.

Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery under direction of Kaster and Maxon.
