Upon his service with the U.S. Military he returned to El Paso where he met, married and spent 59 years with his loving wife, Adelina. Jesus worked for the U.S. Postal Service for 30 years and retired in 1985. During his retirement, Jesus and his loving wife traveled and enjoyed their retirement together. Jesus was a lifetime member of the Segura-McDonald Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, a member of the Alta Vista Optimist Club and volunteered for many years at Sierra Medical Center. Jesus was inducted into the El Paso Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996 and some of his most cherished athletic memorabilia is permanently displayed at the UTEP Paul Durham Athletic Center.
