

J. O. BUQUOR PIONEER, DIES IN EL PASO

J. O. Buquor, pioneer resident of El Paso, died Thursday at his residence, 211 Piedras street, at the age of 75 years.

He was born in New Orleans and came to El Paso 25 years ago. He owned valley property and has been retired from business for a number of years. His widow and two sons, J. O. and T. L. Buquor, survive. Both are in business here.

His grandsons, John L. and Adolph Buquor, were formerly identified with the Buquor Motor company and are now with the Anahuac Motor corporation.

Funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Fr. F. C. Roy officiating. Burial by the Simmons-Hartford company will be in Concordia cemetery.
