

Mrs. Butler, 66, Dies Thursday

Mrs. Betty Ann Butler, 66, wife of pioneer El Paso business leader, J. R. Butler, died Thursday in Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn. She and her husband resided at 5131 Timberwolf Drive.

Mrs. Butler, an El Paso resident 58 years, was a member of Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, El Paso Woman's Club and a life member of Texas Western College Women's Auxiliary. She attended the Lutheran Church.

Her husband came to El Paso in 1908, and has worked in several fields, including wholesale produce, ice cream manufacture, construction and importing. He helped build some of the City's first business organizations.

Survivors include a stepdaughter, Mrs. James A. Perduyn, of Garden Grove, Calif., a daughter, Mrs. P. J. O'Keefe of El Paso, and two grandchildren, Linda Sue and Jim Robinson O'Keefe, both of El Paso.

Funeral arrangements were pending with Harding and Orr Funeral Home.
