

Pioneer Lower Valley Woman Passes Away

Funeral services for Mrs. Mark L. Cadwallader, 79, a pioneer resident of the Lower Valley who died in a local hospital early Friday, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday in the Kaster and Maxon Mortuary. Burial will be in the family plot in Evergreen Cemetery.

The Rev. Winthrop M. Mager, pastor of the Valley Community Church, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. B. M. G. Williams.

Pallbearers will be Mark Sloan, James Cadwallader, John Cadwallader, Louis Schneider, John Stoney Porcher and Felipe Duran.

Honorary pallbearers will be C. M. Harvey, Jess Metcalf, Brack Sloan, John Bland, E. J. Bradt, H. J. Sherwood, W. D. Goss and W. G. Snelson.

Mrs. Cadwallader was the widow of a prominent farmer of the Lower Valley. Mr. Cadwallader died in October, 1945. If he had lived he and Mrs. Cadwallader would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Jan. 6. Cadwallader School in the Lower Valley was named for him.

Mrs. Cadwallader was active in civic life both in the city and in the Valley. For several years she served on the School Board in the county. She was born in Nova, Ohio, and came to El Paso as a bride 50 years ago. Before her marriage she taught school in Paola, Kan.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Virginia C. Randel, 1140 East Rio Grande Street, a sister, Mrs. Emma Brandeberry of El Paso, a brother, Elias Brandeberry of Seattle, Wash., and a grand-daughter, Miss Marianna Randel of El Paso.
