

Friend of Poor Taken by Death

Funeral services today were pending for Mrs. F. A. Carreon of 3608 Alamogordo street, who died in San Francisco, Cal., yesterday. She was 69. Mrs. Carreon was well known as a friend of El Paso's Mexican poor. Friends of Mrs. Carreon said today she raised hundreds of dollars from wealthy friends and used it to relieve the suffering of El Paso's unfortunate.

Mrs. Carreon died while visiting a son in San Francisco.

She was the daughter of Ramon Aranda, pioneer cattleman for whom a street in Juarez is named. She lived in El Paso for 34 years.

She is survived by three sons, Arturo, Alfredo, and Pedro; a daughter, Miss Aurora Carreon, and a sister, Sister Maria, a nun in San Antonio.
