

Mrs. Ethel Cathcart Taken by Death

Mrs. Ethel Cathcart, widow of the late Dr. J. W. Cathcart, pioneer El Paso physician, died today in a hospital after a long illness. She was 75.

Mrs. Cathcart came to El Paso with her husband from Northwestern University in 1902. Dr. Cathcart died in 1943.

Mrs. Cathcart was active in social and civic projects and was a member of the First Christian Church. She was active in the El Paso County Medical Society Auxiliary and was a patron of the International Museum. She was a member of the Sunset Garden Club.

The family home is at 800 West Yandell boulevard.

Mrs. Cathcart is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Florence Cathcart Melby; two grandsons, John Cathcart Melby and Everett Kenney Melby; and a nephew, Virgil Hicks, all of El Paso.

Funeral arrangements are pending with Kater and Nixon Funeral Home.