

Death Claims Dr. Cathcart, X-Ray Expert

DR. J. W. CATHCART

Dr. John W. Cathcart, 64, died at 10:10 p. m. Sunday in his home, 1515 Hardaway Avenue, after a long illness.

Dr. Cathcart, an X-ray specialist, was one of El Paso's best known medical men. He was a member of the American Roentgen Ray Society, Radiological Society of America, American Radiological Society, Southwestern Medical Assn., and Texas Radiological Society; a fellow of the American College of Radiology and the American Medical Assn., and past president of El Paso County Medical Assn.

He was a Spanish-American War veteran. He attended First Christian Church, was a member of the board of the Y. M. C. A., and a past president of the Kiwanis Club.

Born in Cerro Gordo County, Iowa, he was graduated from Northwestern University in 1903. He came to El Paso that same year. He was the first and only interne at Hotel Dieu. He first practiced his specialty in 1904.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Ethel Hicks Cathcart; a daughter, Mrs. John Freemont Melby of Alexandria, Va.; a brother, D. W. Cathcart, La Mesa, Calif.; two grandchildren, Haldor Cathcart Melby and Everett Kinne Melby of Alexandria, and four cousins, Miss Ida Rood of Los Angeles, Calif., Roy Rood of Portland, Ore., Arthur Rood of Hermins, Minn., and Bert Harris of Brecksville, Ohio.

Funeral arrangements were pending with Barry Hagedon Funeral home.
