Death of Mr. Christy.

Last night news reached the city of the death of Mr. J. Christy, at Fairbanks, Arizona, who was making his first trip representing the firm of R. F. Johnson & Co., of this city. In answer to inquiring telegrams word was received that Mr. Christy was at Fairbanks and sick. Acting under instructions from Mr. Johnson to send him home, a telegram was received stating that Mr. Christy had died on reaching the cars. Mr. Christy was for several years the secretary of the International Smelting company, and was a man well known. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Order of Elks and the Woodmen of the World. The two former orders have sent Mr. M. A. Dolan to Fairbanks, who will embalm and return on Monday with the body when he will be buried by the two orders named. He leaves a wife and seven children.
