

Mrs. Classen, Social, Civic Leader, Dies

MRS. ASHLEY CLASSEN

Mrs. Ashley G. Classen died Tuesday night in a local hospital.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Nicholas William and Ashley M.; a daughter, Jane Helen; two sisters, Miss Kathleen Molesworth of Austin, and Mrs. Ernest Long of San Bonito, Texas, and a brother, Edward Molesworth of Roswell, N. M.

Funeral rites were pending with Harding and Orr Funeral Home.

Mrs. Classen, the former Hilda Molesworth, was active in social and civic activities. She came to El Paso shortly after her marriage in 1935, following Classen's appointment as superintendent of the City Water Department.

An accomplished soprano, Mrs. Classen was a member of the choir of St. Clement's Episcopal Church, and active in the woman's auxiliary of the church. She was active also in the Woman's Club of El Paso and served on the board of the YWCA. Active in P-TA work, she had served as president of the Radford Mothers Assn.

The Classens reside at 3023 Copper Ave.
