Died.

DIED.—In El Paso, at 12:13 this morning, of congestion of the brain, W. R. Cochran, attorney at law and mayor of Cochran, Georgia. Aged about 30 years. Mr. Cochran was one of the most estimable of men, and was greatly beloved by those who knew him. During his last illness he was tenderly cared for by a number of his friends in this city who took pleasure in attending to his every want. His body was taken in charge by the Masonic Order, of which he was a member.
