ARRANGE RITES FOR DR. CRIMEN

Bishop Schuler to Officiate At Mass Tomorrow For Hospital Chief

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. in Immaculate Conception Church for Dr. John C. Crimen, general manager of Southwestern General Hospital.

Bishop Anthony J. Schuler will officiate at funeral services and at rosary services today at 7:30 p. m. in Kaster and Maxon Chapel.

Dr. John C. Crimen

Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery.

Dr. Crimen was 56.

He became ill yesterday while in an automobile with Dr. Ralph Homan, an associate. He complained of having an attack of indigestion. Dr. Homan stopped his car and called an ambulance. Dr. Crimen died in the ambulance en route to Southwestern General Hospital.

Came Here In 1910

Dr. Crimen became treasurer and secretary and superintendent of Southwestern General Hospital when it was opened in the spring of 1937.

Dr. Crimen was born in New Orleans. He came to El Paso in 1910. He was on the faculty of the dental school of Tulane University.

A few weeks after he came to El Paso, Dr. Crimen became acquainted with Dr. Robert B. Homan Sr. They became associates in the Albert Baldwin Sanatorium which later became Homan's Santorium. Dr. Crimen and Dr. Homan had been associates since.

Pallbearers

Dr. Crimen was past Exalted Ruler of the Elks Club. He was a member of the El Paso Boosters' Club and was a Rotarian.

He is survived by his widow, a son, John C. Crimen Jr., and two daughters, Misses Johnell and Jennie Bob Crimen.

Active pallbearers will be: Dr. Ralph Homan, Dr. George Turner, Dr. F. O. Barrett, Dr. Frank Goodwin, Dr. Robert B. Homan Jr., and Earl Maxon.

Honorary pallbearers will be: Dr. Robert B. Homan Sr., Sam D. Young, Albert Mueller, H. A. Michael, George Weidner, Jack P. Sheehan, A. B. Poe, C. H. Eckford, W. W. Bridges, J. C. Brooke, J. J. Kaster, Lou Werfel, Dr. Orville Egbert, Dr. K. D. Lynch, Dr. J. J. Gorman, Dr. Felix P. Miller, Dr. A. W. Multhauf, Gerald H. Jordan, Dr. John Pangman, Frank Patterson, Crawford Harvie and W. L. Long.