
DIED.

Died, on December 26, at 11:20 p. m. at the residence of her son, J. C. Critchett, Clint, Texas, Mrs. Myra W. Critchett, aged sixty-three years. Although the health of Mrs. Critchett has been slightly impaired for a number of years, yet her sudden death comes as a great shock to her many friends and relatives. While she had been suffering for several days, her condition was not deemed serious until late Christmas day when the alarming symptoms of pneumonia appeared, and in her weakened condition all that skilled medical aid and loving hands could do, was of no avail against the ravages of the dread destroyer.

Mrs. Critchett was born in York, Washtenaw county, Michigan, and lived in that vicinity most of her early life. In 1883 she was married to the late Judge O. A. Critchett of Monroe, Michigan, whom she survived eight years.

Among the many friends and relatives who mourn her death are three sons, a brother and four sisters. The immediate family were all present, with the exception of a son in Nova Scotia and a sister in Michigan.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of J. C. Critchett Saturday afternoon, after which under escort of her sons the remains will be conveyed to Monroe, Michigan, for interment in the family burying ground by the side of her husband.

Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Monroe, Michigan, papers please copy.
