

---

John L. Dart.

John L. Dart, colored, age 77 years and a resident of El Paso for the past fifteen years, died in his home in this city last night and will be buried in Concordia cemetery this afternoon. The funeral service was held in the colored Baptist church this afternoon at 2:30, Prof Murphy officiating.

The deceased had been the colored janitor at the Mesa school building for several years and was known among a large number of the white population of this city, as well as among the colored people as a man of high moral character. He leaves a large number of children and great grand children in this city.

---