

DIED.

In this city, Sunday morning, the 8th inst., of puerperal fever, MRS. ALICE DAVIS.

The deceased was the wife of Mr. Chas. Davis, of this city, and leaves her husband and three small children to mourn her loss. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and during her short residence in our city, had endeared herself to a large circle of admiring friends, who tender their warmest sympathy to the afflicted family. The funeral took place from her late residence on San Antonio street, Monday evening, at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted by the Rev. J. W. Tays, of the Episcopal church.
