

B. M. DONALDSON, PIONEER, DIES

Was Health Department
Registrar in 1915; Funeral Friday Morning.

B. M. Donaldson, aged 56 years, a pioneer resident of El Paso, and former registrar of the city health department, died Wednesday evening at his home, 805 West Missouri street, after an illness of several months.

Mr. Donaldson for many years was connected with a saddlery and leather firm as a traveling salesman, and was well known in the southwest. He was appointed city registrar by mayor Lea in 1915, and served until the early part of 1916, when the condition of his health made his resignation necessary.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Gene and W. H. Donaldson, of El Paso.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the chapel of the McBean, Simmons and Hartford company. Burial will be made in Evergreen cemetery.
