

Mrs. Juana Dowell died at Ysleta last Tuesday, at the residence of Mrs. Mary M. Phillips. She was one of the pioneers of this country, and during her long life greatly endeared herself to all who knew her by her many splendid qualities of womanhood.