

MRS. DRISCOLL DIES IN SPANISH HONDURAS

Mrs. Edith Bell Driscoll, a sister of Mrs. A. A. Murdock, wife of city auditor Murdock, of 3825 La Luz street, died on August 3, at Cuyamul, Spanish Honduras, Central America, according to advices received in this city by Mrs. Murdock Sunday afternoon.

While in El Paso up to one year ago, when she left for Central America, Mrs. Driscoll was chief telephone operator for the El Paso and Southwestern railroad system, in the general offices in this city.

She resided in El Paso for a number of years, and was a prominent member in and worker of the Trinity M. E. church, besides being a member of the choir in the church. Mrs. Driscoll also was a charter member of the Y. W. C. A. in this city.