

Death Ends Long Hunt By Ysleta Man For His Son

Funeral services for J. M. Duran, 70, who died Monday at Ysleta will be held at 9 a. m. today in Mt. Carmen church at Ysleta. Interment will be in the Ysleta cemetery.

Death of Duran ended a 13-year search on his part for his son, Ray, who joined the United States marine 13 years ago and who has not been heard of since.

Duran was the father-in-law of James Lowenstein, county jailer. He was also the father-in-law of the late Jimmie O'Brien. Survivors are Mrs. Estella D. Lowenstein, Mrs. Delfina Lenstein, Mrs. Elvira Bevell, and Mrs. Celia Dryden, daughters; and two sons, Alfred and Rudolph of California.
