

---

GRAND DUSENBURY.

Grand Dusenbury, an artist whose home and studio was in New York city, died in the city recently and was buried this afternoon in Evergreen cemetery. The deceased artist had been a resident of El Paso for the past four months and was 24 years old at the time of his death.

A brother arrived here for the funeral, which was in charge of McBean, Simmons and Carr.

---