

Old Resident Dies

Francisco Escontrias, 74, a resident of El Paso for more than half a century and familiarly known among his friends as "Capitan," died at his residence, 109 Anthony street, early last night. He and Trinidad Concha, leader of the famous old McGinty band, who died here recently, were close friends. Both were prominent musicians.