

Mary Anne Fletcher Claimed By Death; Lies Beside Mother

Little Mary Anne Fletcher, daughter of Frank B. Fletcher, died in the family home at 4 o'clock Monday morning after a brief illness and funeral services were conducted at the home on Chicago street Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery beside her mother who died soon after her birth.

Mary Anne was eight months old on April 15 and had made many loving friends during her short span of life. Her mother, the former Anne Magoffin was greatly loved for her friendliness and happy disposition and her baby inherited the same qualities and had a smile for everybody who knew her. The late Mrs. Fletcher was a daughter of Mrs. James Magoffin. Little Mary Anne was the picture of health, a chubby pink and white baby with blue eyes and sunny hair and she had always enjoyed the best of health until the illness since Friday which caused her death.
