

E. M. GIRON, SAN ELIZARIO BOY, DIES IN DOUGLAS

Douglas, Ariz., July 29. -- Enrique M. Giron, a painter who has lived in Douglas six years, died suddenly under circumstances that seemed to warrant the calling of a coroner's jury, though his friends insist there could have been no cause for suicide.

He was the son of Casper Giron, a wealthy merchant of San Elizario, Tex., where he was born. The father is en route to Douglas.
