

GASPAR GIRON DIES HERE; PIONEER VALLEY MERCHANT

Gaspar Giron, 67 years of age, a pioneer of El Paso and San Elizario, died Saturday night at 8 o'clock after an operation, following an illness of some time, at Hotel Dieu.

Deceased was born in Juarez, and had lived in El Paso and the Rio Grande valley all his life. He owned large land and cattle interests near San Elizario, and was well known to many pioneers of this section.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Tomasa Giron, and two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Larrazola, of El Paso, and Miss Isabel Giron.

The funeral will take place Tuesday, but the hour has not yet been set.
