

---

Mrs. Mary Gough, aged 45. wife of Proprietor Gough of the St. George hotel died last evening of pulmonary troubles, and will be buried from the Myrtle avenue Catholic church at 9:00 a. m., tomorrow after previous services at the residence at 8:30 a. m. Emerson & Berrien have charge of the funeral. The deceased came here from California in 1886, and leaves two sons, one in California and one in this city. She was widely known.

---

HERALD

1-28-98