James Gregory Dead.

James Gregory, a well known sporting man of this city who has been ill for some time, died at an early hour this morning at Hotel Dieu. The cause of his death was general debility. Gregory had been a hard drinker.

The remains were turned over to the Caldwell undertaking company who at once wired the relatives of the deceased for instructions.

Gregory came to El Paso about fifteen years ago from Kansas and has made it his headquarters ever since. He was well known through the west. At one time he was mayor of Newton, Kansas.

Deceased leaves two sisters and a brother. His brother and one sister reside in Chicago and the other sister at Streator, Ill. His relatives have been telegraphed to but as yet no response has been received and the remains are at the Caldwell establishment awaiting their reply.

Dick Tobin and Gus Lee have charge of the funeral arrangements. Gregory leaves considerably property, it is said.
