

PAUL P. HAMMETT

FUNERAL TODAY

Son of Late Mayor Found Dead In Room

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p. m. today from Kaster & Maxon Mortuary for Paul P. Hammett who was found dead in his room at Hotel Lockie yesterday.

Rev. Wistor R. Smith was to officiate. Mr. Hammett was to be buried in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Hammett was 62. He was a son of the late Col. Benjamin F. Hammett, Mayor of El Paso from 1901 to 1903. For several months Mr. Hammett had been in ill health.

Mr. Hammett's parents were very active in social and civic affairs of El Paso before their deaths. Col. Hammett was a real estate operator.

Mr. Hammett is survived by a nephew, Guy Hammett Davis, and two nieces, Betty and Dorothy Davis, all of El Paso, and a brother-in-law, B. L. Farrar, Van Horn.

Pallbearers: C. N. Bassett, B. L. Farrar, J. U. Sweeney, W. D. Greet, J. E. Quade, and Joe Dunne.