DIED.

June 19th, 1903, in El Paso, at the home of her husband, Fred Hitchens. Mrs. Katie Hitchens, in the thirty-first year of her age. She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn the loss of a most devoted wife and mother. In her character and her daily life were personified all Christian graces. To know her was to love her. In the home she has left desolate and in the hearts of her many friends the sweet flowers of her lovely influence will never fade. Although her life was so short, it has been the guiding star for many others. Truly we live in deeds, not years. We can but feel that "She came to point our hearts to heaven. She goes to call us there."

A Friend.
