

MRS. W. T. HIXSON DIES

Wife Of Former El Paso Jeweler
Succumbs In Illness

Mrs. W. T. Hixson, former El Pasoan and part owner of the W. T. Hixson Co., jewelers, 118 Mills St., died suddenly yesterday of a heart attack in Oak Park, Ill.

Mrs. Hixson had been in Oak Park for about a month.

Mrs. Hixson left El Paso about four years ago and lived in California, where Mr. Hixson was forced to live because of his health.

She remained in California after Mr. Hixson's death three years ago.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Oak Park. Burial will be in Ithaca, N. Y., where Mr. Hixson is buried.
