

PIONEER LAS CRUCES WOMAN
DIES AT HOME OF DAUGHTER

Mrs. Lydia E. Holt, 83 years old, died July 13 at the home of her daughter, Valeria Viscarra, 710 North St. Vrain street, after a long illness. She had been a resident of El Paso for a year and a half, coming here from her home in Las Cruces, N. M. She was a pioneer of New Mexico, first coming to this part of the country in 1879 with her husband, I. R. Holt. Mrs. Holt is survived by three sons, I. R. Holt, of Las Cruces and Elgin B. and Walter E. Holt, of Phoenix, Ariz., and three daughters, Mrs. Viscarra, Mrs. C. C. Hanley, of El Paso, and Mrs. Langford Johnson, of Magdalena, N. M. The body was taken Wednesday to Las Cruces for burial.
