MANY MONTHS

Death Takes R.B.Homan, Sr., EP Physician

DR. R. B. HOMAN, SR.

Death came to Dr. Robert B. Homan, Sr., prominent Southwestern physician in his residence, 1837 Grandview Avenue, at 5 p. m. Monday,

Dr. Homan, whose death followed a long illness, was 71. Born May 25, 1872, in Bryan, Texas, Dr. Homan was educated in Texas public schools, and attended Texas Christian University and the University of Texas.

His marriage to Mrs. Homan, the former Jennie Alexander of Dallas, took place in 1903. January, 1943, marked their 40th wedding anni-tuberculosis and, at the same time, favorable business opportunities, Dr. Homan settled in El Paso in 1907. During the 36 years of their resi-(Continued On Page, 10, Col. 1)

Death Takes R.B.Homan,Sr.,

(Continued from Page 1.)

dence in El Paso, the Homans were prominently associated with church. spelal, and educational interests.

As a part of the long battle Dr. Homan waged against tuberculosis-terminated only by his illness- he operated a sanitarium in El Paso.

operated a sanitarium in El Paso.

A civic leader and outstanding El Pasoan, Dr. Homan once advocated civic morality, cheap fuct so that factories would locate here, and "more advertising of climate-out best asset."

Dr. Homan is survived by his wife.

Mrs. R. B. Homan, Sr.: one son, Dr. R. B. Homan, Jr.: a daughter, Mrs. Clay Gwinn, Carlsbad, N. M.; two grandchildren, Allen Clay Gwinn, output for the control of the contro grandchildren, Allen Clay Gwinn of Carlsbad, and Alice Jane Homan of El Paso; two sisters living in El Paso, Mrs. Sallie Smith and Mrs. Grace Beal, and three brothers, Dr. C. C. Homan and Willis V. Homan, both of El Paso, and Commander Ralph H. Homan, USN, now over-scas. Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday in the First Chris-tian Church. The Rev. D. W. Mc-Elroy will officiate.

The family request that, in lieu of flowers, checks he sent to the El-Paso Tuberculosis Society.