

George Hull, "father" of the Cardiff Giant that now lies in the yard at Mesa garden in this city, died at Superior, Wis., last Sunday. Hull had the giant manufactured, buried it on his farm, dug it up over twenty years ago, and made a fortune by exhibiting it before the fraud was discovered.