

FORMER DIAZ COMMANDER IS BURIED IN CONCORDIA

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at the Mexican chapel of the Kaste company for the late Gen. Melito Hurtado, once a Diaz commander in Mexico City, who was found dead Monday. Interment was in Concordia cemetery.

Hurtado was employed as watchman in a new building at 116 Chihuahua street and went to work apparently in usual health Sunday night, relieving Jose F. Escolta, another watchman. Hurtado's lifeless body was found by workmen the following morning. He is said to be survived by a widow and eight sons in Mexico City.
