

MRS. HUSSMANN, 53, DIES AT HOME HERE

Came to El Paso 12 Years Ago
From St. Louis

Mrs. Caroline Louise Hussmann, 53, wife of Harry L. Hussmann, prominent El Paso and St. Louis refrigerator manufacturer, died at the family home, 4209 Pershing Drive, last night after an illness of many years.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Peak-Hagedorn mortuary.

Mrs. Hussmann was born in St. Louis and lived in that city until she moved to El Paso with her husband and family 12 years ago.

Mrs. Hussmann is survived by her husband, four sons, Harry L. Hussmann Jr., Roy, Elmer and Irving Hussmann, all of El Paso; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Hathcock, Fayetteville, Ark., Mrs. Edith Stevenson and Mrs. Mildred Brock, all of El Paso; her mother, Mrs. John Lienhop, Webster Grove, Mo.; three brothers, John, August and Arthur Lienhop, and a sister, Mrs. Bertha Galtermann, all of St. Louis.