

MRS. ISAACKS' FUNERAL TODAY

Illness of Two Weeks Is Fatal
To Church Worker
Here

Funeral services were to be held at 4 p. m. today in the First Christian church, Oregon and Franklin Sts., for Mrs. Minnie Rutledge Isaacks, 68, wife of Judge S. J. Isaacks, Rev. A. A. Hyde was to officiate.

Mrs. Isaacks died yesterday at her home, 3021 Federal St., after an illness of about two weeks. Her condition had been regarded as critical since last Wednesday.

Mrs. Isaacks had been active in work at the First Christian church since the family moved to El Paso from Midland 17 years ago.

Mrs. Isaacks is survived by her husband, four sons, E. Buford Isaacks, Cisco; Rutledge Isaacks, Pecos; Jack, El Paso, and William Isaacks, Tucson, Ariz., and by three daughters, Miss Maude Isaacks, and Mrs. Inez Foster, El Paso, and Mrs. Wade Johnson, Cisco.

Burial was to be in Evergreen cemetery under direction of Kester & Maxon mortuary.