

MRS. RUE JACKSON DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Moved Away From El Paso
In 1928

Mrs. Rue Jackson, former El Pasoan, died Dec. 30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence M. Hunter, Covina, Calif., friends in El Paso were notified today. She was 65.

Mrs. Jackson moved to California in 1928, after living here for 17 years. She was the widow of A. P. Jackson, lumberman, who founded a chain of yards known as the Jackson-Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co.

She was active in the First Presbyterian Church, the El Paso Woman's Club, The Salvation Army Rescue Home and Red Cross and Y. W. C. A. work here.

She is survived by three children, Mrs. Hunter, Miss Jane Jackson, former society editor of the old El Paso Evening Post, and Mrs. Frank S. Ross, Ft. Thomas, Ky.

Funeral services will be held in Covina and burial will be in Krum, Tex.