
Died.

Mrs. Julian, wife of ex-Postmaster Julian, died last night at her home in this city. While she has been failing in health for some time her death was an unexpected shock to her many friends. The cause of her death was complete paralysis of the stomach. She leaves a husband and two sons to mourn her loss, and the sympathy of the entire city is with them in their bereavement. Mrs. Julian was a native of Limerick, Ireland, and at the time of her death was fifty-five years old.

Mass will be said in the morning at the Sister's Chapel of Hotel Dieu, for the repose of her soul, and the funeral services will take place at the chapel at 3:30 p. m., with interment in Concordia cemetery.
