

Mrs. Kaster Dies, Services Set

Mrs. Maud L. Kaster, wife of the late J. J. Kaster, who founded Kaster-Maxon Funeral Home in 1905, died yesterday. She came to El Paso as a bride in 1909.

She was a member and past president of the MacDowell Club, president of El Paso Woman's Club in 1929, and was a member of First Presbyterian Church where she sang in the choir for many years.

She is survived by her son, Postmaster James J. Kaster of El Paso, a sister, Anna May Lafferty of Altoona, Pa., three grandchildren, Hester Sue Woodfin of Paris, Texas, and Barbara and James Kaster Jr. of El Paso, and four great-grand children.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Kaster and Maxon Chapel, with Dr. Paul Newton Poling and Rev. George W. Burroughs officiating.

Burial will be in Masonic Cemetery.
