

Gone to Rest.

Yesterday morning the spirit of Paul W. Keating departed from this earth. The deceased was well known in El Paso. He was not what is called a church christian, but he was a man of good impulses; a man who understood the weaknesses of humanity and was ever ready with an open hand to help his fellowman. He was generous to a fault; was an old citizen of El Paso and a member of her second city council. Mr. Keating was a mason and K. of H. in good standing and will be buried this afternoon with masonic honors. The Masons, the Knights of Honor and the fireman will attend the funeral in bodies.
