

Mrs. Sarah Kerr, Here 60 Years, Dies

Mrs. Sarah Paul Kerr of 707 North Virginia street, a resident of El Paso for 60 years, died today in a hospital. She was 84.

Mrs. Kerr was the widow of the late John A. Kerr who constructed boundary markers between the United States and Mexico in the Southwest. He was a moulder for the El Paso Foundry and Machine Co.

Mrs. Kerr was a native of Dighton, Mass. She married in Kansas City and settled in El Paso in 1892.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the Kaster and Maxon Chapel. Rev. Delbert L. Hughes officiating.

She is survived by a son, J. Paul Kerr of El Paso; four daughters, Mrs. Grace Schuyler, Mrs. Waldo Allen, Mrs. Robert Keith, all of El Paso, and Mrs. Frank Young of Roswell; 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in the Masonic Cemetery.